A Level 1 Coach Course:

Up to 28 Learning Facilitator candidates selected from the Jordanian sport federations.

The three modules of the Level 1 coach course to be deliver by two Canadian MLFs to Jordanian Learning Facilitator candidates over 6 days plus 2 days for evaluation.

The evaluation each candidate is only required to attend his or her one hour 1-on-1 evaluation session with the master learning facilitator).

May 2009

Two seven day Learning Facilitator courses to be deliver by two Canadian MLFs to Jordanian Learning Facilitator candidates, with 14 of the 28 candidates in each course.

The candidates are divided into two sections of 14, to attain the desired ratio of two master learning facilitators for 14 learning facilitator candidates, which allows sufficient time for practice teaching).

Fall 2009

The above process is repeated for the three modules of Introduction to Competition Level 2 in the fall of 2009.

A leadership group of 5-7 Jordanian Master Learning Facilitators is identified from the successful candidates to oversee the future delivery of the program

2010

Following delivery of the Levels 1 and 2 courses by the Jordanian Learning Facilitators, discussion will be required to determine readiness to proceed to level 3.
