

The Jordan Olympic Committee Law No. 13 for the Year 2007
Published in the Official Gazette at page No. 1686 of Issue No. 4817 dated
1/4/2007

Article 1:

This Law shall be called (The Jordan Olympic Committee Law of 2007), and shall come into force from the date of being published in the Official Gazette.

Article 2:

The following words and expressions wherever they appear in these Regulations shall have the meanings assigned thereto hereunder unless the context indicates otherwise:

Committee: The Jordan Olympic Committee.

Assembly: The Committee's General Assembly.

Board: The Committee's Board of Directors.

Chairman: The Committee's Chairman / Chairman of the Board.

Federation: The sports or qualitative federation established under the regulation issued by virtue of this law.

Article 3:

A non-governmental entity shall be established called (the Jordan Olympic Committee) with separate legal personality and financial and administrative independence with head office in Amman, and shall aim at sponsoring the Jordanian sports movement in accordance with the fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter and the decisions of the International Olympic Committee.

Article 4:

The Committee, for the purposes of achieving its objectives, shall undertake the following duties.

- a. To sponsor and develop the sports movement on the national level.
- b. To instill the principles of ethics and Islamic and Arab traditions and sports ethics and the fighting of doping.
- c. The actual participation in activities that aim to achieve the following:
  1. Achieve human accord.
  2. Encourage women's sport and promote it.

3. Promote environmental issues.

Article 5:

The rules and procedures relating to the composition of the Committee, its membership conditions, its Board formation, the convening of its meetings and all other administrative, financial and technical matters, including the Charges the Committee levies for its services shall all be regulated in a regulation issued for this purpose.

Article 6:

The Committee's financial resources shall comprise of the following:

- a. The financial support provided by any governmental entity or the allocation provided for the Committee in the general budget.
- b. The amounts allocated for the Committee from the National Fund for Sports and Youth.
- c. Grants and donations provided by any entity provided the council of ministers' approval is obtained if the source was non-Jordanian.
- d. The support and allocations provided by the International Olympic Committee and the National Olympic Committees' Council, other entities subordinate to the International Olympic Committee, the Asian Olympic Council, the Olympic Solidarity Committee and any sports entity recognized internationally.
- e. The returns on the Committee's investment of its moveable and immoveable properties.

Article 7:

The General Assemble shall have the following authorities:

- a. To draw the general policy for the Committee and to put forward plans and programs necessary for its implementation including the sponsoring of recreational sports and regulating professionalism.
- b. To elect the Board members.
- c. To Approve of the Committee's budget and the closing balance.

Article 8:

The Board shall have the following authorities:

- a. To implement the decisions of the General Assembly.
- b. To establish institutes, academies or Olympic museums.
- c. To hold conferences, workshops and workshops necessary for the training and preparation of sports' leadership.

- d. To sponsor distinguished and talented athletes in order to develop their talent and skills.
- e. To represent the Kingdom before bodies and entities related to the Olympic movement and organize sports' exchanges and execute agreements therewith inside and outside the Kingdom.
- f. To approve the formation of federations and to oversee and follow up on their activities and to support the federations and provide them with the necessary technical assistance.

Article 9:

- a. A Federation, once formed, shall enjoy a separate legal personality with financial and administrative independence and shall assume, with such status, control over its different activities in accordance with this Law and the regulations issued pursuant to it and the Olympic decisions pertaining to its activities.
- b. The rules and procedures relating to the formation of federations, its management, its dissolution, the organization of its meetings and all other administrative and financial matters shall be regulated in a regulation to be issued for that purpose.
- c. The Committee's budget and the budget of all Federation attributed to it shall be subject to the audit of the audit bureau.

Article 10:

The Committee formed by virtue of the regulation issued under this Law shall substitute the Olympic committee that was formed by virtue of the Jordan Olympic Committee Regulation No. (18) for the Year 1987 and its amendments, and shall become its legal and factual successor; all assets, rights, moveable and immoveable properties shall be transferred to the Committee and it shall assume all its obligations and shall be transferred to it all hires and employees, and their service shall be considered as a continuation to their previous service with the old committee.

Article 11:

The Council of Ministers shall issue the necessary regulations for the implementation of this Law.

Article 12:

The Prime Minister and the Ministers shall be responsible for the implementation of this Law.